

List of local restaurants

Here are some tips for eating out- this is by no means a complete list, there are many more restaurants around here! Looking for something specific? (please contact waonl@outlook.com and we'll do our best to help you) Most restaurants allow dogs, but be sure to check .

Ermelo

DE SCHOUT VAN ERMEL

At the entrance of town. Terrace right at the main roads, so lots to see- dogs welcome. Inside; take a seat at the bar, or choose a place near the fireplace(s) or at one of the dining tables. Menu offers a la carte lunch/dinner with great wines or you can choose for a Spanish Tapas menu. Lovely atmosphere, traditional menu, also great for a night of chatting and eating tapas, easy to get to!

Harderwijk

In the city next to Ermelo, there are many great places to eat.; just walk into the city center (parking on Boulevard) towards the old Musis School- and you'll end up on the a busy, bustling square (marktplaats) with many restaurants to pick from:

- Graaf van Gelre (sate is really good)
- Pepperbox
- De Boterlap (voted best terrace)
- Graaf van Gelre (awesome burgers)
- Luigi

If you haven't found what you fancy; try the boulevard!

Tip- Pancakes for dinner!

Yes- that's right, in Holland we eat pancakes for dinner! Big ones, both with sweet topping or with savory ingredients like bacon/cheese, mushrooms/meat. Or sweet with walnuts and honey, or apple/raisins or the basic Dutch version: plain with molasses. Don't forget to try a plate of 'poffertjes' with butter and powdered sugar!

PANNENKOEKHUIS DE HUIFKAR

About 60 different pancakes to choose from. Sweet, savoury, typically "Veluwsch" (local), Pancake Hawaii, Luxury Apple, XXL, Mon Cherie, Turkish etc. This restaurant is located in the nearby town of Putten.
